

To whom it may concern:

Mike Roberts, of Dragon's Quest and Animal Encounters, became an enjoyable asset to the 2007 edition of the Great Lakes Medieval Faire. Not only was his show entirely enjoyable, but highly informational and engaging. Mike Roberts proved himself a star here at the Great Lakes Medieval Faire by providing our strong entertainment line-up with an outstanding and superb assortment of shows, exhibits, and the opportunity for our guests to get their photos taken with animals that they, otherwise, might never again encounter the chance to hold. The show seemed to entertain all ages but completely mesmerized the children.

I highly recommend Mike Roberts and his Dragon's Quest to anyone wishing to add a delightfully engaging performance to their entertainment line-up. Furthermore, Mike and his Dragon's Quest adventure, proved themselves able to adapt to any setting by fitting in just perfectly with our Medieval Village theme. He quickly adapted to costuming and stage requirements that are set here at Great Lakes. Mike Roberts is a valuable addition to any organization looking to entertain a wide variety of audiences.

Thank you,
